

PRISONERS-OF-WAR GET A SQUARE DEAL

GERMANY STRICTLY OBSERVES GENEVA CONVENTION

Prisoners-of-war tell us they expected to be shot by the Germans as their officers had warned them they would.

These POW don't look as if they were lined up before a firing squad, do they?

They are having a good time watching a football match. All camps have athletic fields and modern sporting equipment. Besides, there are movies and shows for your entertainment.

Note the fir trees in the background. Not an unhealthy place to spend the rest of the war.

No. 4 of a series of twelve leaflets showing the life of prisoners-of-war in German camps.
